

when flooding hit wheeling, west Virginia, a small radio station was about the only voice people could hear...WKKX 1600 AM. They should be commended for the job they did. People who had no electricity tuned in to find out what was happening in the area. Other media in our area dropped the ball.